

Norman Rockwell Narrative Performance Task

Image #1: Triple Self-Portrait

Image #2: Lion and Zookeeper

Today, you will be working on writing a narrative piece about a work by Norman Rockwell. The two artworks shown above are (Image #1) Triple-Self Portrait and (Image #2) Lion and Zookeeper. You will be able to refer to the images throughout the task.

Directions for Part 1:

Use the images to answer the questions. Your answers can be used as evidence in your opinion piece.

Notes:

What's going on in Triple-Self Portrait?
What do you see that makes you say that?

Notes:

What's going on in Lion and Zookeeper?
What do you see that makes you say that?

Part 2--Write a Narrative Piece:

Norman Rockwell is an American artist who was well-known for showing scenes from American culture. Today your task is to write a narrative piece to tell us a story about one of the pictures. You will be able to include your observations and evidence from your notes boxes as you tell your story.

Remember:

- Tell us a story about what's going on in the picture
- Be organized in how you share your ideas
- Include a beginning, middle, and end
- Include capital letters, punctuation, and best spelling
- Include transitions
- Use details from your art source

Glossary:

Culture is a group's special way of life including food, clothing, celebrations, traditions, and values. It's the things they do and believe too.

Be sure to leave time to...

- Plan
- Write
- Edit and revise
